Subject - Grant of Special Batta to the officials of the Muzrai Superintendent's office.

Under Art. 632 (d) (i) Mysore Service Regulations, the establishment of the Genl. and Revenue Secretariat are entitled to a Special Batta at 6 annas a day for their halts at Mysore during Dasara and Birthday festivities.

2. A bill for Special Batta amounting to Rs.8-14-0, claimed on behalf of one clerk and 2 menials of this office for their stay in Mysore during the last Birthday season was forwarded to the Comptroller for audit but was returned unaudited, on the ground that the establishment of the Muzrai Secretariat was separated from the General and Revenue Secretariat in G.O.No.788-90/ Cash 29-21-1 dated 27th September 1921 and as such was not entitled to the same.

Flag A.

3. The establishment transferred from the General and Revenue Secretariat to this office in G.O.No.1480-87/Cash 29-21-2 dated 31st December 1921 were enjoying the special rate of Batta for a long time.

4. The work of this office establishment is similar to and as arduous as that of the General and Revenue Secretariat establishment in Mysore Camp and it will be a hardship, if they are not given this Batta, especially when they are no longer in receipt of double 2nd class railway fare. Only a clerk and 2 menials were taken to camp during the last Birthday and the cost on this account for both the Dasara and the Birthday will not amount to more than Rs.30/- every year.

5. Recently, Government have sanctioned special Batta to the officials of the Economic Development Board.

6. I therefore recommend that the concession of drawing special Batta may be kindly extended to the establishment of my office also.

1. The request of the various departments of the State for the grant of the special batta has been refused. The Muzrai Sectt is separate though the officials were working in the G. R. S and were getting this special batta.

2. The ~~of~~ ~~precedent quoted~~ request may be sanctioned on the strength of the precedent quoted. The Economic Development Board is as separate from the G. R. S. as the Muzrai Sectt is and the grant of such concession in one case cannot be denied to the other.

3. But the question of giving enhanced daily allowances (50 %) during Birthday and Dasara festivities ~~are~~ is under the consideration of the committee. Perhaps the decision may be awaited and orders passed. ~~on this~~ ~~[illegible]~~
